THE CHURCHES.

Committees on ministerial standing and Sunday School work were appointed and after some interesting addresses by delegates the benediction was pronounced and the council adjourned.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 14.—The transaction of routine business was suspended by the delegates to-day, the time being devoted to religious exercises at the different churches in the city.

The forenoon, Rev. H. Quint, D. D., of Dover, N. H., the retiring secretary of the convention, preached to a large audience in South church.

Dr. Little's congregation completely filled the church, and the service was one of the most eloquent ever delivered in Concord.

At the conclusion of the forenoon exercises, communion service occurred. The communion was distributed by six deacons of the church, and partaken of by a large number of the congregation.

Slating was furnished by chords of 800 boys and girls. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Dr. Edward Barker, the oldest installed pastor of New Hampshire.

At the South church the evening service was conducted by the pastor. Prayers were offered by Rev. Dr. I. F. Warren of Portland, and the benediction was pronounced by Rev.
Dr. Johnson, of Rutland, Vt., and others.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE.

Natural Proceedings at Manchester, N. H.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Oct. 13.—There never before was a congressional committee in New England that has worked so hard as the subcommittee of the Senate committee on education and labor.

The committee, which was organized last year, has been working hard ever since. It has been holding numerous hearings, and has been examining witnesses.

The most important testimony of the evening was that given by Charles Chandler, cashier of the Manchester National Bank and treasurer of the National Savings Bank.

He said that the latter institution had received $100,000 of which one-half was deposited in the National Savings Bank.

Out of this, $50,000 was paid out in dividends, and the balance was retained in the bank.

Chandler testified that the bank had been operating for some time, and that it had been successful in its business.

He also testified that the bank had been operating for some time, and that it had been successful in its business.
